Enjoy the Satoyama Japanese Countryside in a 200-Year-Old Traditional House

The house was built in the 19th century by the second son of the village headman. It is a traditional Japanese house style with thatched roof, earthen floor, tatami mats, shoji screens, and sunken hearth. 15 minutes to the ocean, you can enjoy both the ocean and the mountains. Surrender yourself to the relaxing time flowing in the old private house and clear your mind.
