

Seasonal flower photo

Let's take photos of the attractive flowers of the four seasons in Fukui, a place surrounded by the sea and mountains and rich in nature.

In spring, the cherry blossoms bloom in bright and fleeting light pink colors, during the rainy season, hydrangeas turn blue and purple, and in summer, sunflowers bloom in full bloom facing the sun. And when the autumn breeze blows, cosmos bloom quietly under the soft sunlight.

Fukui Prefecture is a special place where the beauty of nature and tranquility are in harmony, and you can take a special photo in private while experiencing Japan's rich four seasons more deeply.
