

Echizen Great Buddha Special Sea of Clouds Viewing

Echizen Great Buddha at daishizan Seidaiji marks its 35th anniversary. Spanning 22 hectares (4.7 Tokyo Domes), its 17m statue is Japan's largest, surpassing Nara's Buddha. The hall features 1,281 stone Buddhas, attracting many visitors, even during COVID-19, for its Instagram-worthy views. The first and last hour of opening are reserved for a special viewing with artificial sea clouds, creating a mystical atmosphere. Special goshuin stamps are also available.
