

Enjoy a lunch of local cuisine at Kagetsuro and experience Katsuyama Sagicho performance art

Visit Kagetsuro, a 120-year-old tangible cultural asset that still retains its Meiji-era architectural design with umbrella ceiling, and enjoy lunch there featuring local Fukui cuisine such as taro (a local ingredient of Okuechizen) and bikkake rice stew (normally only served at receptions and other banquets). After the meal, local staff will perform Katsuyama Sagicho, a local performance art with a history stretching back more than 300 years. This is the only tour that gives you the opportunity to experience the festival atmosphere and actually participate in Katsuyama Sagicho.
